The Legend of Robin Hood

THE LEGEND OF ROBIN HOOD

The story begins in the year 1090, in England. The hero of the story is called Robin Hood and he lives in Sherwood Forest, a large wood near the town of Nottingham. Robin Hood is an outlaw. His companions are outlaws too.

They live in the forest because they fight against the Sheriff of Nottingham and Prince John.

Prince John is the brother of a great king, Richard the Lionheart.

King Richard is far away from England because he is on a crusade in the Holy Land.

THE LEGEND OF ROBIN HOOD

He is a very good king and his people love him. His brother, Prince John, rules over England while Richard is in the Holy Land, but the people neither love nor respect him. Prince John is greedy and ambitious. He hopes that Richard will not come back from the crusade.

– I will soon become King of England! –
 he says to his friend, the Sheriff of Nottingham.
 The Sheriff of Nottingham is a wicked baron.
 The people of his kingdom are forced to pay him heavy and unjust taxes.
 His soldiers are cruel and pitiless and rob
 the poor.
